FAST-TRACK THE BUYING PROCESS

Sourcing FF&E for hospitality projects in 2012? Be our guest at the seventh annual Hospitality Match, July 15-17 in Austin, and discover a better way to buy.

This three-day “speed meeting” event brings key decision-makers from top design firms, purchasing companies and hotel groups together with relevant suppliers—in 20-minute, one-to-one meetings. Here’s how it works:

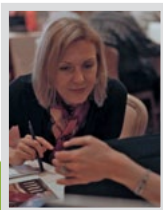

- You apply online to qualify as a buyer.
- You choose in advance the vendors you’d like to meet with.
- We organize and schedule your matches.

You’ll receive complimentary travel, hotel and F&B plus admission to seminars and networking events with fellow designers. Not to mention face time with two dozen FF&E vendors who have what you need—and are ready to field your questions.

DISCOVER NEW PRODUCTS, NEW VENDORS

With at least two dozen FF&E suppliers participating in Hospitality Match—a different mix each year—you're bound to uncover a product line you didn't know existed. Or a supplier with faster turnaround. Or greener options in the same price range. Discoveries that make your job easier, your designs fresher.

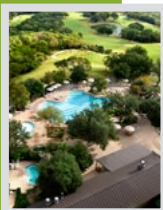

SAVE TIME

In just three days, you can sit down with as many as 24 potential suppliers of your choosing for one-to-one meetings in a focused, intimate setting. The 20-minute time slots give you just enough time to ask questions, explain your challenges and establish a business relationship—then move on to the next vendor.

EXPAND YOUR NETWORK

The Match format provides ample time for casual networking, not only with suppliers you meet and want to know better, but with other designers, buyers and specifiers who attend. Most are heads of purchasing and design for major hospitality projects—precisely the colleagues you want in your circle.

BE OUR GUEST

If you're selected as a buyer, your trip to Austin will be paid in full by Hospitality Match. That includes airfare/transportation, airport transfers, three nights at the luxurious Barton Creek Resort & Spa, and all food & beverage.
